A member is defined as the paying member and their family. If a member's family helps at a work function it is considered one (1) workday for the member.

Additional workdays are not added if a member and their family members attend a work function. It is the member's duty to complete the workdays as a part of their membership. If a member is unable to complete their work duties due to illness or injury, a spouse or significant other can complete them in their place. It is the member's responsibility to report time worked to a Board Member if work is completed on an individual basis. (Passed: February 9, 1998)
